

Commitment

Hotel yadis ibn khaldoun is committed to continuous improvement, which aims at fair and ethical business practices, social development and protection of the environment and the protection of children. This is to meet the expectations of our Customer and stakeholders, reduce the impact of our operations on the environment and provide good working, health and safety conditions for our employees, our commitment to our social and environmental responsibility. In addition to our commitments in the QSE policy, we have implemented the following elements:

1. Compliance with legislation:

We carry out our activities and maintain our relations with the stakeholders and the society within the framework of the strict application of the economic, social and environmental laws in force in Tunisia and according to the international codes. To do this, we provide regulatory and normative oversight at all levels of the organization.

2. Social responsibility:

Our social commitment is based on respect for human rights, and in particular;

- Protection of the rights of the child in general and against sexual exploitation;
- Practice of a responsible management of the human resources which promotes the good management of the competences and which banishes professional discrimination;
- Guarantee of a working environment open to dialogue and guaranteeing the flourishing of our staff and compliance with the labor code;

3. Community involvement:

We contribute to the development of the well-being of the local populations and to the discovery of the local culture, in particular by:

- Collaborating with civil society organizations and technical training centers for young people;
- Promoting local culture, whether by the food service at the hotel or the decoration of the hotel;
- Promoting, to the extent possible, local procurement and selection of local providers;

4. Health and safety:

We anticipate the health and safety risks of our employees, customers and neighboring communities, including internal directives and measures that we systematically communicate to our staff and customers via posters, hospitality Training.

5. Role of our employees, subcontractors and customers:

We encourage all the staff of the YADIS IBN KHALDOUN hotel to adhere to and contribute to the achievement of the objectives of this charter, and we commit ourselves to put the necessary means to make it happen.

We also ask our service providers to commit to respecting this charter. We also thank our customers who wish to contribute to our commitment.
